Right Now Counts Forever

Everyday Prayer with the Reformers

Historian There is no such thing as a meaningless moment. Since we're made in God's image and created for His eternal glory, everything we think, say, and do today matters forever. The question is, How should this truth direct our daily lives?

"When God's children pray, we talk to a God familiar with the requests, praise, and longings of generations of his people. We have much to learn from those who went before us. In this devotional, Donald McKim takes us back to the wisdom of more than thirty Protestant Reformers."

For more than forty years, Dr. R.C. Sproul wrote his recurring column in Tabletalk magazine, Right Now Counts Forever, to apply the teachings of the Bible and Reformed theology to everyday life. No topic was off-limits because every part of our lives bears enduring significance. Through the years, Dr. Sproul helped Christians give careful thought to topics in theology and history, politics and current events, relationships and entertainment, and more.

If you would like to make a one time donation above and beyond your regular giving, please designate it. Let's earnestly pray that the Lord might use our giving for His glory among the nations!

98 YEARS OF GOD'S FAITHFULNESS

Today we celebrate 98 years of God's faithfulness to our local church. On October 26, 1923, in the home of Mr. & Mrs. John Cooke at 609 Ohio Avenue, a group of believers committed to the truths of Scripture would form what would become Randolph Street Baptist Church. Let us be thankful for the long history of men and women who faithfully served this local church with gratitude toward God. The history of Randolph Street is not a narrative about us. It is a story of God's grace. Soli Deo Gloria.

THE WESTMINSTER LARGER CATECHISM

Q70. What is justification?

A70. Justification is an act of God's free grace to sinners, in which he pardons all their sins and accepts and accounts their whole persons as righteous in his sight, not for anything worked into them or done by them, but only because of the perfect obedience and full satisfaction of Christ imputed to them by God, received by faith alone.
