THE BAPTIST CATECHISM

Q70. What is required in the fifth commandment?

A70. The fifth commandment requires that we preserve the honor and perform the duties which belong to every one in their various roles as authorities, subordinates or equals.

Scripture: Leviticus 19:32; 1 Peter 2:17; Romans 12:10; 13:1; Ephesians 5:21-22; 6:1, 5, 9; Colossians 3:19-22; 1 Thessalonians 5:12; Hebrews 13:7, 17.

Q71. What is forbidden in the fifth commandment?

A71. The fifth commandment forbids neglecting or offending the honor and duty which belongs to every one in their various places and relations.

Scripture: Proverbs 30:17; Romans 13:7, 8.

Anniversary Dinner

Today we celebrate 99 years of God's faithfulness to our local church! Join us directly after our Gathering for our Anniversary Dinner.

Student Ministry Small Group

Tonight our small group for students (6th-12th grade) will meet from 6pm-8pm. This is a great time for your students to grow in their faith, connect with other students, and serve others. Jason will be teaching this evening and the focus is Philippians 3. If you have questions, please talk with Russ Bonasso or Pastor Jason.

Randolph Street Children's Choir

We are planning to have our children sing a special Christmas song for our Gathering on Sunday, December 18th. They will be practicing in the Welcome Center for the first 10-15 minutes of the Training Hour beginning November 13th. They will also practice November 20, 27, December 4, and 11. Ashley Hale will be leading the group. Please contact her or Pastor Tim if you have questions.

Poinsettia for Christmas

If you would like to purchase a poinsettia in memory of a loved one or in honor of someone, please pick up a form on the back table, fill it out, and return to us. We will use the poinsettias to decorate the auditorium, and they will be available for you to take home after our December 18th Gathering. The orders need to be submitted by Sunday, November 20th.

Parent/Child Dedication

On Sunday, December 11th, we will have a time to thank God and to pray for parents and young children. If you would like to be a part of our parent/child dedication, please contact Lee Stonestreet (lee@randolphstreet.org).

Sprinkle for Lydia Luikart

Lydia and Josh Luikart, alongside big brothers Gabe and Jackson, are expecting another baby boy in January 2023! Join us at the South Ridge Panera on Saturday, November 12th at 1:30pm to celebrate and help them prepare.

RANDOLPH STREET BAPTIST CHURCH 99TH ANNIVERSARY

This year we celebrate 99 years of God's faithfulness to our local church! Randolph Street Baptist Church was born out of the fundamentalist-modernist controversy of the 1920s. The church began with a meeting of ninety-two believers on October 26, 1923, in the home of Mr. & Mrs. John W. Cooke at 609 Ohio Avenue. The first church service of the soon to be named, Fundamentals Baptist Church, met two days later at a vacant store room at 743 Virginia Street. This group of faithful men and women would move forward in seeking God's face by forming a new local church that would remain committed to the truths of Scripture for the glory of God.

On November 21, 1923, ninety-nine believers officially organized and chartered themselves as Fundamentals Baptist Church. In the following year, this group changed their name to match the location of the lot purchased on Randolph Street. Randolph Street Baptist Church's foundation stone was laid in 1926 and the building was dedicated on February 18, 1927.

Now, 99 years later, the purpose of our local church remains the same. Standing on the shoulders of these faithful men and women who loved their Savior and His church, our aim is to continue this commitment to truth and being a church that brings glory to our great God!
