THE HEIDELBERG CATECHISM

Q&A 16 — Why must He be a true and righteous man?

He must be a true man because the justice of God requires that the same human nature which has sinned should pay for sin. He must be a righteous man because one who himself is a sinner cannot pay for others.

Q&A 17 — Why must He at the same time be true God?

He must be true God so that by the power of His divine nature He might bear in His human nature the burden of God's wrath, and might obtain for us and restore to us righteousness and life.

Q&A 18 — But who is that Mediator who at the same time is true God and a true and righteous man?

Our Lord Jesus Christ, whom God made our wisdom, our righteousness and sanctification and redemption.

Q&A 19 — How do you come to know this? The holy gospel tells me. God began to reveal the gospel already in Paradise; later God proclaimed it by the holy patriarchs and prophets and foreshadowed it by the sacrifices and other ceremonies of the law; and finally God fulfilled it through his own beloved Son.

RANDOLPH STREET & THE LORD'S TABLE

Today we come to Christ as we observe His command of the Lord's table. Together, we will confess our faith, publicly acknowledge our union with and love for Christ, and commune with thankful hearts with our Savior. It is here we affirm our participation in the new covenant, and we renew our commitment to Christ, the head of the covenant. It is here we also acknowledge our unity and fellowship with one another, brothers and sisters in Christ.

In this sacrament, the sufferings of Jesus are brought into focus and his substitutionary death is pressed upon our conscience. As a result, we will be spiritually nourished as the gospel truth is driven into our souls and our eyes of faith look upon Him who suffered in our place.

This moment is sacred for our church family. We approach this time with joy, knowing our sins are forgiven, and we approach this time with a sober spirit, knowing our Savior suffered in our place. If you are a believer in Christ, we happily invite you to the Table this morning. Soli Deo Gloria!

The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

1 Corinthians 10:16-17
