The Reformers and Puritans as Everyday Prayer with the Reformers
Spiritual Mentors: Hope Is Kindled

“Historian Michael Haykin examines the lives of such Reformers as William Tyndale, Thomas Cranmer and John Calvin to see how their display of the light of the gospel in their day provides us with a “usable past”-models of Christian conviction and living who can speak into our lives today. Born in a time of spiritual darkness, they model what reformation involves for church and culture: a deep commitment to God's Word as the vehicle of renewal, a willingness to die for the gospel and a rock-solid commitment to the triune God. As a reminder that at the heart of the Reformation was a confessional Christianity, an essay on two Reformation confessions is also included.”

“When God's children pray, we talk to a God familiar with the requests, praise, and longings of generations of his people. We have much to learn from those who went before us. In this devotional, Donald McKim takes us back to the wisdom of more than thirty Protestant Reformers.”

Community Care

We are thankful that God has placed us on the West Side so we can serve our community. We often have folks join us in our Gathering who are in need of a meal or seeking financial assistance. If anyone approaches you in need of something, please refer them to one of the staff pastors, elders, or deacons so we might be able to assist them.

THE HEIDELBERG CATECHISM

Q52. How does Christ's return "to judge the living and the dead" comfort you?

A52. In all distress and persecution, with uplifted head I confidently await the very judge who has already offered himself to the judgment of God in my place and removed the whole curse from me.<sup>1</sup> Christ will cast all his enemies and mine into everlasting condemnation, but will take me and all his chosen ones to himself into the joy and glory of heaven.<sup>2</sup>
