Right Now Counts Forever

Everyday Prayer with the Reformers

Historian There is no such thing as a meaningless moment. Since we're made in God's image and created for His eternal glory, everything we think, say, and do today matters forever. The question is, How should this truth direct our daily lives?

"When God's children pray, we talk to a God familiar with the requests, praise, and longings of generations of his people. We have much to learn from those who went before us. In this devotional, Donald McKim takes us back to the wisdom of more than thirty Protestant Reformers."

For more than forty years, Dr. R.C. Sproul wrote his recurring column in Tabletalk magazine, Right Now Counts Forever, to apply the teachings of the Bible and Reformed theology to everyday life. No topic was off-limits because every part of our lives bears enduring significance. Through the years, Dr. Sproul helped Christians give careful thought to topics in theology and history, politics and current events, relationships and entertainment, and more.

Gentle and Lowly by Dane Ortlund

Through a generous effort of Crossway publishers, we have free copies of Gentle and Lowly available on the back table. Michael Reeves wrote of this book, "Dane Ortlund lifts our eyes to see Christ's compassion-filled heart for sinners and sufferers, proving that Jesus is no reluctant savior but one who delights in showing his mercy. For any feeling bruised, weary, or empty, this is the balm for you."

New Church Software

We are excited to announce that we will be transitioning to a new church software next month, Touch Point. This will provide our church family with a Randolph Street mobile app with access to: a church directory, a prayer request list, ability to update personal data, and an interface to view and update giving. More information to come soon!
