Right Now Counts Forever

Everyday Prayer with the Reformers

Historian There is no such thing as a meaningless moment. Since we're made in God's image and created for His eternal glory, everything we think, say, and do today matters forever. The question is, How should this truth direct our daily lives?

"When God's children pray, we talk to a God familiar with the requests, praise, and longings of generations of his people. We have much to learn from those who went before us. In this devotional, Donald McKim takes us back to the wisdom of more than thirty Protestant Reformers."

For more than forty years, Dr. R.C. Sproul wrote his recurring column in Tabletalk magazine, Right Now Counts Forever, to apply the teachings of the Bible and Reformed theology to everyday life. No topic was off-limits because every part of our lives bears enduring significance. Through the years, Dr. Sproul helped Christians give careful thought to topics in theology and history, politics and current events, relationships and entertainment, and more.

We are extending the deadline for orders to be submitted to Sunday, December 5th.

We have completed the transition to our new online giving platform, which will greatly reduce fees associated with online giving. All previous online giving accounts have been canceled and, if you wish to give online, you will need to sign up on our new giving platform. You can sign up on our church website or through your individual TouchPoint page. Thank you for your continued sacrificial giving for the work of the Lord at Randolph Street.

Cross Conference

Jason will be traveling to Cross Conference December 29 - January 1. This is a missions conference designed for 18-25 year olds and leaders in the church. If you are interested in attending, please text or call Jason (304-926-4118). For more information, visit crosscon.com.

To The End of the Earth

As we study through Acts together as a church family, it is our prayer that God will use Randolph Street to take the gospel to the end of the earth, especially to those who have not heard. We will be focussing on a different nation each week through the end of the year. We will continue devoting 10% of all regular giving to specific least reached nations. If you would like to make a one time donation above and beyond your regular giving, please designate it. Let's earnestly pray that the Lord might use our giving for His glory among the nations!
