Right Now Counts Forever

Historian There is no such thing as a meaningless moment. Since we’re made in God’s image and created for His eternal glory, everything we think, say, and do today matters forever. The question is, How should this truth direct our daily lives?

For more than forty years, Dr. R.C. Sproul wrote his recurring column in Tabletalk magazine, Right Now Counts Forever, to apply the teachings of the Bible and Reformed theology to everyday life. No topic was off-limits because every part of our lives bears enduring significance. Through the years, Dr. Sproul helped Christians give careful thought to topics in theology and history, politics and current events, relationships and entertainment, and more.

Everyday Prayer with the Reformers

“When God's children pray, we talk to a God familiar with the requests, praise, and longings of generations of his people. We have much to learn from those who went before us. In this devotional, Donald McKim takes us back to the wisdom of more than thirty Protestant Reformers.”

Training Hour Schedule

Due to our Business Meeting on January 30th, the teens and adults will meet in the auditorium. All Children’s classes will continue to meet on the 30th.

Annual Business Meetings

Our final business meeting will be held in the auditorium on January 30th at 9:00am. It is open for anyone to attend. Information packets are available on the back table. If you are unable to attend but would like to receive a packet, please e-mail Lee (lee@randolphstreet.org), and she will send one to you.

At our annual business meeting, we are asking our membership to affirm three items set forth by our elders: (1) 2022 annual budget, (2) two constitutional changes, and (3) Leadership Statement of Faith. Affirmation slips are available on the back table. Please place the slips in the specially marked boxes in the back of the auditorium. Due to covid, we are extending the opportunity for those unable to attend to vote via email or by mailing in your slip to our church offices. If you would like to participate but you are unable to attend, please contact Lee (lee@randolphstreet.org).

Christ Community Church

On January 30th, Alex Garner and Seth Daniel from Lakeville Baptist in Salyersville, KY will be sharing their plans to plant Christ Community Church in Prestonsburg, KY this Spring. This will take place during our Gathering, and we will take some time to pray for them. This is a needy area, and we are excited to support their effort.

Women’s Exodus Study

Women's Bible Study will kick off on February 1st and run through April 5th. We are continuing our study of the book of Exodus and are offering Tuesday morning (9:30am), Tuesday evening (6:30pm), and Wednesday Zoom (9:30am) classes. You can register on the sign-up sheet located on the table in the back of the auditorium. Cost is $20.

On Mission Meal

On Sunday, February 6th, we will be having an On Mission Meal directly following the Gathering. The menu will consist of soup, salad, and desserts, and a sign-up list is available in our weekly e-mail. We look forward to resuming this wonderful fellowship opportunity. All proceeds will benefit Christ Community Church, a church plant in Prestonsburg, KY.

2021 Giving Statements

All 2021 giving statements will be emailed next week. You can already access your 2021 giving statements by visiting our website, clicking on the “Give Online” button, and then clicking on the “2021 Giving Statements”. If you have not set up your Randolph Street member profile, please email Lee (lee@randolphstreet.org), and she will get you set up so you can view your statement. If you would like a printed copy of your 2021 donations, please email Amanda at (amanda@randolphstreet.org).

THE BAPTIST CATECHISM

Q5. How do we know that the Bible is the Word of God?

A5. The Bible evidences itself to be God’s Word by the heavenliness of its doctrine, the unity of its parts, and its power to convert sinners and to edify saints. But only the Spirit of God can make us willing to agree and submit to the Bible as the Word of God.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 2:6-7,13-16; Psalm 19:7-9; 119:18,129; Acts 10:43; 26:22; 18:28; Hebrews 4:12; Romans 15:4; John 16:13,14; 1 John 2:20-27; 2 Corinthians 3:14-17; 4:4, 6

Comment: "Heavenliness" refers to the fact [that] the teachings of Scripture are of such a nature that they cannot be explained by mere human resources. They bear the marks of the supernatural. "No man ever spoke like this man" (John 7:46). The "unity of its parts" has to do especially with the way all Scripture points to Christ. "To him all the prophets bear witness" (Acts 10:43). There are detailed and scholarly historical arguments for the reliability of the Bible, but these are generally beyond the acquaintance of ordinary Christians, and so do not serve as widespread support for Scripture. They are needed, however, in the scholarly arena. [See "Is the Bible a Reliable Guide to Lasting Joy" in Desiring God by John Piper (Multnomah Press, 1986).]
