2023 Bible Reading Plan

Join us in reading through the Scriptures in 2023. There are many good plans to choose from to help you each day. We have placed the "5 Day Bible Reading Plan" is on the back table. You can also access the plan at www.fivedaybible.com.

On Mission Meal

On January 8th, we will be having an On Mission Meal directly after the Gathering. All proceeds will go to the new Hope for Appalachia program, the Harbor House. This meal will be a chili cook off, so please bring your favorite chili, salad, or dessert to share.

Annual Church Business Meeting

The annual business meeting will be held on Sunday, January 22 & 29 at 9:00am. All members are encouraged to attend. These are important meetings for us as we prepare for ministry together in 2023 and beyond.

Training Hour

There will be no Adult Training Hour classes during the month of January. Adult classes will resume on Sunday, February 12th. Children's Training Hour classes will be held only on January 22 & 29 during the annual meetings and then will resume a normal schedule on Sunday, February 12th with the adult classes.

Student Ministry Small Group

Our next small group for students (6th-12th grade) will take place on Sunday evening, January 15th from 6pm-8pm. If you have questions, please talk with Tim Sigman, Russ Bonasso or Pastor Jason.

Ladies' Bible Study

Join us for a ten session, verse-by-verse study of 1, 2, and 3 John beginning January 24th and running through April 4th. The apostle John's words will challenge us to recall our great salvation and abide in the truth. Registration fee is $25 and covers the cost of the book, which you will receive at the first meeting. Registration is open on the church website.

RANDOLPH STREET & THE LORD'S TABLE

Today we come to Christ as we observe His command of the Lord's table. Together, we will confess our faith, publicly acknowledge our union with and love for Christ, and commune with thankful hearts with our Savior. It is here we affirm our participation in the new covenant, and we renew our commitment to Christ, the head of the covenant. It is here we also acknowledge our unity and fellowship with one another, brothers and sisters in Christ.

In this sacrament, the sufferings of Jesus are brought into focus and his substitutionary death is pressed upon our conscience. As a result, we will be spiritually nourished as the gospel truth is driven into our souls and our eyes of faith look upon Him who suffered in our place.

This moment is sacred for our church family. We approach this time with joy, knowing our sins are forgiven, and we approach this time with a sober spirit, knowing our Savior suffered in our place. If you are a believer in Christ, we happily invite you to the Table this morning. Soli Deo Gloria!

The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

THE HEIDELBERG CATECHISM

Q&A1 - What is your only comfort in life and in death? That I am not my own, but belong — body and soul, in life and in death — to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

Q&A 2 - What must you know to live and die in the joy of this comfort? Three things: first, how great my sin and misery are; second, how I am set free from all my sins and misery; third, how I am to thank God for such deliverance.
